

CONTENTS

Introduction	5
How this book can help you	6

Section I Learning to crochet lace

Threads, hooks and other equipment	7
Working the stitches	12
Other simple procedures and background	17
The structure of filet crochet — following a pattern and using a graph	20
Simple pattern reading and working square	23
More advanced pattern reading and working without gaps at the tops of the stitches.	26
Working blocks the same width as spaces and working on the other side of the foundation row	28
Increasing and decreasing — single spaces	30
Increasing and decreasing — several spaces	33
Increasing and decreasing — blocks	37
Lacets	40
Tufts	43

Section II Patterns with other simple techniques

Rose cushion cover	45
Rose jug cover — moving from one round to the next without slip stitching, and putting beads on the outer edge	46
Wild rose and pigeon d'oyley set	48
Tudor rose sandwich d'oyley	50
Hexagonal rose d'oyley set — turning the work and crocheting into the side	52
Rosebud filet d'oyley — joining the last row to the first and simple mounting	56
Eight-point rose d'oyley	64
Briar rose traycloth	66
Rose and pigeon tray cloth	68
Rose and pigeon chair set	70
Rambler rose tray cloth	72

Section III Further details

Background on filet crochet methods	74
Further reading and websites.	76
Suppliers	77
Index	78